

Articulation Agreement between
NASHVILLE STATE COMMUNITY COLLEGE and
O'More College of Design

Introduction

This Articulation Agreement formally recognizes that NASHVILLE STATE COMMUNITY COLLEGE and O'More College of Design are active educational partners, committed to providing greater educational opportunities and services for students transitioning between institutions. This agreement is crafted to make the transfer process between institutions simple and fair without question on credits earned.

In cooperation between NASHVILLE STATE COMMUNITY COLLEGE and O'More College of Design, both institutions recognize the work the students have achieved in their careers in higher education. Each institution also holds high regards to serving students from all walks of life, regardless of race, ethnicity, religion, sex, disability, color, age, marital status, national origin or other non-merit factors.

Purpose

This agreement is designed to aid in the transition of NASHVILLE STATE COMMUNITY COLLEGE students who transfer to O'More College of Design to bring with them the credit they have already earned for as much relevant study as possible. The articulation agreement provides an outline of how course credits earned at NASHVILLE STATE COMMUNITY COLLEGE transfer and equate to courses at O'More College of Design.

Transfer Elements

NASHVILLE STATE COMMUNITY COLLEGE Associate Degrees and General Education Courses

This articulation agreement sets the definition for both holders of Associate of Art or Associate of Science degrees from NASHVILLE STATE COMMUNITY COLLEGE and students who have taken courses in General Education or have earned an Associate of Applied Science degree.

Students who have received an Associate of Art or Associate of Science degree from NASHVILLE STATE COMMUNITY COLLEGE will have all General Education Core courses satisfied at O'More College of Design.

Students who have taken General Education courses or have earned an Associate of Applied Science degree at NASHVILLE STATE COMMUNITY COLLEGE will have the corresponding course transferred to O'More College of Design as long as the grade earned is a C or above. Refer to the General Education chart for course equivalencies.

Admission to O'More College of Design

NASHVILLE STATE COMMUNITY COLLEGE students seeking to transfer must go through O'More College of Design's application process and therefore must meet all applicable requirements and deadlines pertaining to submitting all college transcripts, application for admission, orientation and registration, and payment of tuition and fees. They will abide by the policies and procedures, along with any revisions thereof that apply to all students from that institution.

Obligations of the Institutions

NASHVILLE STATE COMMUNITY COLLEGE and O'More College of Design agree to provide Web site information regarding this agreement.

Evaluation

There will be an annual review process of the partnership supported by this articulation agreement. The information obtained from this evaluation will be used to improve the transfer process for the benefit of students. The process will also re-evaluate course listing and new course offerings.

Longevity of the Agreement

This agreement will remain in effect until either institution sees fit to end the agreement. Either institution may discontinue this agreement by submitting a written notification to the other institution one year prior to cancelation. Upon receipt of the cancelation notice, both institutions will meet to discuss terms of cancelation and to ensure the students who are part of the agreement are not affected by the cancelation.
